Briefing Note

Sayers Common Village Association

For Council

Introduction:

Whilst no formal meeting has taken place since the initial meeting the Chairman has communicated an update for the Council's information.

Update:

- The Council's recognition of the Association is gratefully acknowledged.
- The appointment of a formal Parish Council representative is also gratefully accepted.
- The appointment of officers and "hub" representatives is ongoing with approximately 60-70% in place.
- Website and social media infrastructure is being created the with aim for it to be complete by the end of the summer.
- The association is cognisant of the Reeds Lane recreation ground second phase requirements being reviewed and revalidated. In the coming weeks the association will aim to:
 - Introduce itself to the residents by means of the various hubs.
 - Verbally canvas opinion about the 2019 recreation ground proposals and update the council on the current perceived priorities.
- A line of communication has been opened up with the Sayers Common Village Society with the Chairman attending a meeting on Thursday 18th July.
- Village centre design concept is still ongoing with Colin Midgley.

Recommendations:

- 1. Nil recommendations for Council.
